

RESPONSE LOGS

Directions: Choose one of the prompts below to start your response. Be sure to respond to a SPECIFIC part of the reading that you have done. EXPLAIN your response. DO NOT retell (summarize) the reading.

1. I wonder what this means . . .
2. I really like/dislike this part because . . .
3. This character reminds me of someone I know ( _____ ) because . . .
4. This character reminds me of myself because . . .
5. I think the setting here is important because . . .
6. This scene reminds me of a similar scene in _____ because . . .
7. This part is realistic/unrealistic because . . .
8. I like/dislike this writing style because . . .
9. This section is particularly effective because . . .
10. This section makes me think about _____ because . . .
11. I think the relationship between ___ and ___ is interesting because . . .
12. I admire this character ( _____ ) because . . .
13. If I were _____, at this point I would . . .
14. I can picture the setting clearly because . . .
15. I think _____ is making a mistake here because . . .
16. I would change the plot of the story to this . . . because . . .
17. I am annoyed/frustrated with this part of the story . . . because . . .
18. I am annoyed/frustrated with this character . . . because . . .
19. The strongest emotion (love, confusion, fear, joy, anger, etc.) in this chapter is . . . Examples from the chapter of how this emotion is expressed are . . .
20. I think the author included this event/character in the story because . . .
21. The conflict in this story is . . . The conflict affects the characters in this way . . .
22. I am confused about . . . What I DO understand is . . . But I don't understand this part . . .
23. Copy a line or two that you think has particular power (be sure to put it in quotes). Explain why you responded to those lines.